To whom it may concern,

I confirm that I have known Philip Docherty for some seventeen (17) years.

Philip and I first met when the company he was working for, Forstaff was selected to supply the Sydney Opera House with casual labour to assist our own maintenance staff in our planned and preventative maintenance. We also called on Philip to supply extra casual labour when we had larger events to present.

At all times I have found Phil to be professional, courteous and reliable. The personnel that Philip has supplied to the Sydney Opera House from his past and present company, MPM Recruitment have been first class and we have been very pleased with the quality of people and the excellent service we have received over the years. Through Phil we have employed Electricians, Fitters, Carpenters and General Hands.

I would have no hesitation in recommending MPM Recruitment Services and Philip Docherty to future potential clients.

I'm happy to provide further information if required.

Yours faithfully,

Les McLean
